Collect

Almighty God,
you called Luke the physician,
whose praise is in the gospel,
to be an evangelist and physician of the soul: by the grace of the Spirit
and through the wholesome
medicine of the gospel,
give your Church the same love and
power to heal;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty God,
who on the day of Pentecost
sent your Holy Spirit to the apostles with the wind from heaven and in tongues of flame,
filling them with joy and boldness to
preach the gospel:
by the power of the same Spirit strengthen us to witness to your truth and to draw everyone to the fire of your love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Financial Giving Please do support St Luke's using one of the options below:

- Regular giving by standing order - for more information contact Dave Chambers at simplydavec@aol.com
- One-off online donations accessed via the St Luke's website homepage
- Contactless card reader available at the back of church

Isaiah 35:3-6

³ Strengthen the weak hands,
and make firm the feeble knees.

⁴ Say to those who are of a fearful heart,
'Be strong, do not fear!

Here is your God.

He will come with vengeance,
with terrible recompense.

He will come and save you.'

⁵ Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped;

⁶ then the lame shall leap like a deer,
and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy.

For waters shall break forth in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert;

Luke 10:1-9

After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. ²He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. ³Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. ⁴Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. ⁵Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" ⁶And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. ⁷Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. ⁸Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; ⁹cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you."

The Saturday Coffee Book Club recommends...

'Anatomy of a Scandal' by Sarah Vaughan - one of the best books we have read so far.

It involves a Westminster scandal, dark secrets and focuses on the women caught up in it. The action takes place in the Houses of Parliament, Oxford University and the Old Bailey.

One member said "The characters were brilliant ... and I just had to get to the end to find out what happened to them all." We definitely recommend it!

Moving Forward Together - Continued

The PCC have considered again the Covid precautions in church and decided to continue with the current arrangements (wearing a face covering unless exempt, hand sanitiser to be available when we sign you in, social distancing, and Communion administered in two kinds with the Priest intincting). The PCC will keep a watching brief as we see what happens when winter arrives.

Harvest Giving—Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who made a donation to Farming Community Network (FCN) as part of their harvest thanksgiving. We raised £178.75, including gift aid.

Next MMU Ramble

After the great turnout for our last couple of rambles we are planning another one on: Saturday 23rd October 9.45 for 10am start to walk or 12:30 for just lunch at The Cricketers, Mill Green Road, Ingatestone, CM4 0RH.

The walk is flat, about 4 miles long, through woods and fields, mainly on foot-paths with a few stiles and short stretches of road. There is a high chance of seeing the large herd of deer that live there. It could be muddy!

The pub is accessible with one small step at the back and just the threshold at the front. There is an accessible toilet too. Parking is behind the pub, in the lay-by opposite, or there is a large community car park opposite the pub.

Please could you let Jacky Langley (St John's) know ASAP if you would like to join us for the walk and lunch or just lunch. Food orders will be collected nearer the time. Contact Jacky on: jackylangley@btinternet.com or on Jacky's mobile: 07872344495
