2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-end

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, ² not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. ³ Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. ⁴ He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. ⁵ Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

¹³ But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴ For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

¹⁶ Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, ¹⁷ comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

Luke 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him ²⁸ and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. ²⁹ Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; ³⁰ then the second ³¹ and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. ³² Finally the woman also died. ³³ In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.'

³⁴ Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; ³⁵ but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶ Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. ³⁷ And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ³⁸ Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.'

Toybox - Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who kindly donated to Mum's chosen charity Toybox recently. As a result at least 30 children will now be able to obtain a Birth Certificate and the hope of a better life that this brings. Mum would be thrilled as I am. Sue H

Large Hall and Car Park

The work has almost finished in the Large Hall and it looks great! We hope that the car park will be open for use next Sunday (16 Nov).

We really need you!

We are planning some special services and events over Advent and Christmas and hope you will get involved:

- Christingle Service (Sunday 30 Nov at 4pm);
- Carol singing at the Eagle and Hind pub (Tuesday 16 Dec at 6pm)
- Cakes and Carols (Saturday 6 Dec at 2.30pm) - Although not exclusive, we would like to invite the older members of our community or those living on their own. We are hoping that you will be able to offer cakes and help with refreshments and chatting to those who come along.
- Come and be a Christmas detective - this is a family-focused event (Monday 22 December from 2pm), following the nativity journey with clues to collect along the way. There will be crafts and snacks available. Please let Lucy, Stephanie or Suzanne know if you can help.

Christmas Wreath Workshops

There are two free spaces at each of the Christmas Wreath workshops for members of our congregation - if you are interested, please let Lucy know your first and second choice of date. Spaces will be allocated on a first come first served basis. If you would like friends to come along, they can book directly with Esther (07810 308218):
